

The OSHC Conference 2026

High-quality guidance that will change the way you deliver OSHC. Join us to elevate your work and renew your sense of purpose.

Attend to access:

- Practical strategies for facilitating risky play with confidence
- Guidance on using co-regulation to support children's behaviour
- Connection with like-minded people and a big sense of community
+ much more

Tuesday 26 May and Wednesday 27 May

9.30am–2.30pm
(outside of service hours!)

Online + optional
in-person event!

Featuring

MARC ARMITAGE

Playworker, play consultant and researcher

ROBYN PAPWORTH

Developmental educator and exercise physiologist

GLENN MANTON

Speaker-educator, media personality and youth advocate

PROF. JOHN TOBIN

Associate Dean (Diversity and Inclusion), Melbourne Law School

+ Dr Bruce Hurst, Professor Jennifer Cartmel and Catharine Hydon

Learn more and secure your spot by scanning the QR code

'So much practical information that can be applied to your practice. I loved the whole thing!'

Kimberley (South Australia)